4. What are your interests and skills? What qualifications do you bring to this work of guiding a child during the elementary years?

Section H: Diploma Requirements

An AMI diploma is granted upon satisfactory completion of the course requirements which include full attendance at the lectures, full attendance at supervised practical sessions, a minimum number of hours of observation and teaching practice in Montessori classrooms previously approved by staff, reports on observations and records associated with practice teaching, satisfactory completion of albums containing illustrated notes on developmental materials and classroom presentations as given in the course, essays on lectured theory, essays on theory and practice associated with lectures and readings, satisfactory preparation of classroom materials, passing marks on AMI approved written examinations, as well as passing marks on oral examinations supervised by an examiner appointed by the Association Montessori Internationale.

Note: Additional certification such as an FBI background check may be necessary for observation, practice teaching and/or securing a teaching position in some schools.

Section I: Dismissal Policy

Students may be asked to discontinue their studies for academic, medical, psychological, or other cogent reasons. Students not fulfilling any part of the coursework by the final closing date will be "deferred." In this case, the student has one year from the last date of oral examinations to successfully complete remaining requirements. If requirements are not completed within one year, the student has failed and is required to repeat the entire course in order to obtain the diploma.

Section J: Cancellation of Course

The Montessori Institute of San Diego reserves the right to cancel the course due to insufficient enrollment.

Section K: Refund Policy

The State of California Tuition Recovery Policy (available upon request) governs all refunds.

Section L: Diploma Requirements
