The Del Ray Montessori School, a thriving community Montessori school located in the quaint Del Ray neighborhood of Alexandria, Virginia, is seeking an exceptional AMI-trained elementary guide to join our team as an assistant for the 2016 -2017 school year and become the head teacher in 2017 - 2018. We are a short walk to the Braddock Road Metro and have the opportunity to take advantage of many “going out” activities, as well as field trips, in Washington DC and throughout the Northern Virginia area. This is a great opportunity for an enthusiastic, collaborative guide who is interested in growing professionally with this class and within this wonderful school community!

The Del Ray Montessori School is an independent, non-profit school conveniently located just miles from the DC metropolitan area. The school is currently in its fifth year and houses three primary, one toddler and one lower elementary classroom. We offer competitive salaries, health coverage, retirement benefits, and several professional development opportunities sponsored by the school throughout the year, including events offered through: WMI (Washington Montessori Institute), NAMTA, and the annual AMI Refresher Course.

Successful candidates will:

- Possess or working towards AMI elementary diploma,
- Desire to work in a community guided by respect for children, families and staff,
- Embody the values of the Montessori philosophy at all times; and
- Display a strong team work ethic and sense of professionalism.

Resumes and letters of interest should be sent to:
