

Fort Collins Montessori School Fort Collins, CO

Fort Collins Montessori School is seeking an AMI upper and possibly a lower elementary teacher for our expansion in the 2016-2017 school year. FCMS serves children from 3 years to 12 years and was founded as a charter school two years ago. We plan to expand up through middle school over the next five years.

FCMS is located in southwestern Fort Collins near Colorado State University. Many outdoor activities are available to residents, including skiing and hiking in the Rocky Mountains located only minutes away.

All four current lead Teachers and the Head of School are AMI certified. Our classrooms are well equipped environments, and our staff is committed to providing a true Montessori experience for children.

Applicants will be required to obtain the appropriate certifications for Colorado, including elementary certification or the alternate for Elementary.

Please send your resume, letter of interest, and the expected date for your AMI diploma to apply for this position. Frank Vincent, Head of School, Fort Collins Montessori School, 1900 South Taft Hill Road, Fort Collins, Colorado 80526 email: hofcems@gmail.com
