

Mountaintop Montessori is seeking an experienced, Montessori trained elementary guide to teach in a well-established 9-12 class. Mountaintop is a thriving community of eager students, supportive parents and talented professionals all working to fulfill the school's mission, "Children find their place in the world through excellent Montessori education at Mountaintop."

Mountaintop enrolls approximately 250 students, from toddler through eighth grade who work and learn on our stunning 9.5-acre campus sanctuary. We are committed to Montessori pedagogy, including full 3-hour work periods, well-equipped classrooms, and access to the outdoors. The elementary program includes garden-to-table, going out, community service and a robust performing and visual arts experience.

The Mountaintop faculty is led by an Montessori-trained head of school and is characterized by a deep dedication to ongoing professional growth and learning. Charlottesville is renowned for its quality of life and is the home of the University of Virginia and a vibrant arts and food scene. We offer competitive salary and benefits.
