

Well established and highly respected Montessori school of 44 years seeks to hire AMI elementary trained (or in training) teaching assistant at the Upper Elementary (9-12 age) level. This person would shadow and assist an experienced AMI teacher next fall for one year and then assume the lead guide position in the fall of 2018. Our school's backbone is its teachers, who have a major role in determining the direction and values of the school community – following authentic Montessori principles and practices in the service and education of diverse children and families. A teaching certification at the Elementary level is also required, but candidates in process of obtaining this credential will be considered.

We are located near the downtown capital city of Lansing, MI, 10 minutes from Michigan State University in East Lansing, 1 and a half hours from Lake Michigan, and 1 and a half hours from Detroit. Please send a cover letter, documentation of all degrees and certifications and resume to:
