AMI Montessori Elementary guide to co-direct a bilingual class (English/French)

The Bilingual Montessori School of Paris (www.montessori-pairs.com) is seeking an experienced AMI Montessori Elementary guide to co-direct a bilingual class (English/French) of approximately 35 children from September 2018.

The ideal candidate would have a minimum of 4 years of experience and would be comfortable with the following responsibilities:

- classroom management;
- working with 9-12s, above 6-9 year old children;
- assisting parents, with the help of the Administration, when the time comes for their children to integrate 6th grade or 7th grade, test-preparation, etc;
- keeping abreast of national curriculum standards for French and International traditional schools, whether public or private.

To start preferably in June 2018.

Competitive salary.

We prefer European nationals, or someone with working papers for France, but will assist with Visa for the right candidate.
