

World Traveling School

HIRING: Lower Elementary Lead Guide Ages 6-9

Are you passionate about Montessori? Do you love to travel the world? Do you love the 6-9 age group?

Then you may be the perfect fit for our Montessori-based year-round in-person school.

World Traveling School is a one-of-a-kind school providing stability in education for digital nomad families. We are Montessori, with a cultural immersion component never before seen, let alone experienced. Our students (and Guides) taste, smell, hear, touch and see the world.

Live in 3 countries a year and 9 locations across 3 years. The School, Guides, Parents and students all travel across Latin America.

We are looking for someone charismatic, meticulously organized, self-confident, creative and irresistible for children. The guide will attend up to 10 children, with the help of an assistant.

Integrity and a healthy lifestyle are paramount for this position. The guide will not be able to use the technology in front of children, either inside or outside work (in private or only with adults is fine).

Requirements:

- Montessori training, AMI certification preferred
- Valid passport
- Visa-free access to Peru
- Advanced command of English-language

Flights and stays are paid for.

Many meals provided.

Bonus after 3-years

The guide will often share the living space, but will have their own room.

The salary will be discussed with the right candidate.

Contact Head of School, Erin, with resume, diploma, and background for consideration.
