

LOWER and UPPER ELEMENTARY LEAD TEACHERS- SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO, USA

Desert Montessori School is seeking Montessori certified Elementary Teachers for Lead roles in both Lower and Upper Elementary classrooms. Positions will be available starting in the 2018-2019 school year. Our elementary classrooms have a maximum of 16 students with a lead guide and full time assistant.

Founded in 1979, Desert Montessori School serves children ages 2-12. We are located in the heart of Santa Fe, New Mexico just off Canyon Road, the famous art district with over 100 galleries, studios, boutiques and restaurants in one half mile. We are surrounded by mountains, big sky, beautiful light and close to the Santa Fe River, hiking trails and the Randall Davey Audubon Center and Sanctuary.

Desert Montessori is a modified Montessori School. Our Toddler and Primary classrooms offer an authentic Montessori foundation. As children transition to the elementary years, we begin to integrate the Montessori philosophy and method with research-based educational practices honoring individual learning styles while preparing students for future success. Our students are active participants in academically rigorous classrooms. We provide a purposeful, engaging education that inspires love of learning, fosters independent thinking, social responsibility and self-confidence. To learn more about our school, please visit www.desertmontessori.com.

We offer competitive salaries, ongoing professional development opportunities, and a strong, supportive community of devoted colleagues and families.

Please send your resume and letter of interest to: Phoebe Walendziak, Executive Director at pwalendziak@desertmontessori.com.