

At Mission Montessori, our mission is to help each child become a passionate member of the human community who is confident, creative, and flourishing. We take our mission to heart with a supportive school culture and commitment to high quality Montessori.

We are seeking a toddler teacher to lead a classroom at our beautiful campus. You will guide our students through whole-child development and parents through their Montessori journey. You will also play a key role in helping our assistant teachers flourish. This is a wonderful opportunity for a passionate Montessorian excited about building relationships with children, parents, and colleagues in a caring community where growth is valued and encouraged.

Our Ideal Candidate:

- has a Montessori diploma for 0-3
- has several years of experience leading a Montessori classroom (but newer teachers are welcome to apply)
- has a passion for working with this age group
- has excellent communication skills and loves to collaborate
- continuously self-reflects and seeks ways to grow as a person and educator
- is excited to help assistant teachers have a helpful onboarding experience and to provide them with continuous guidance
- is eager to help people new to Montessori understand the benefits of Montessori and how Montessori works
- loves exchanging ideas with others so we can all benefit from each other's strengths and knowledge

What You Can Expect If You Join Us:

- a competitive salary for the San Francisco Bay Area: $52,000 - $58,000/year, dependent on qualifications
- paid medical, dental, and vision insurance
- paid sick leave, PTO, breaks, and holidays
- tuition discounts
- opportunity to enroll in our 401(K) retirement savings program
- relocation assistance
- visa sponsorship
- a variety of professional development opportunities unique to each employee's career path and interests, including in-house training, positive discipline training, stipends for AMI Refresher Courses, and more
- a wonderful community that includes passionate and supportive educators from around the world, regular mentorship and opportunities for professional growth, social events, and community lunches
- beautiful working environments
- a central location that's easily accessible by public transit

Our Hiring Process:

- Every application is carefully reviewed and receives a response.
- We understand that people from all paths and backgrounds have so much to offer and we believe diversity enriches communities and lives. Our interview process reflects this and is based on the same holistic approach that we use in all other areas of our work. Our goal is to carry out a that is as informative as possible for both our school and the candidate so everyone can make informed decisions about what is right for them.

-The steps after we receive an application are an initial 30-minute Zoom call, a written packet, and a Zoom interview (including a mock Montessori lesson) with two members of our team. We also love to have candidates talk with other Mission Montessori teachers and visit our campus when possible.
