Resurrection Episcopal Day School, an AMI Recognized school in Manhattan's Upper East Side, is seeking applicants for the role of Primary Guide starting September 1, 2017. REDS is a community committed to promoting the intellectual, spiritual, emotional, and physical development of the whole child according to the educational philosophy developed by Maria Montessori and guided by the principles of the Association Montessori Internationale (AMI).

REDS is an independent, non-profit, school with a long tradition of providing Montessori education. Our AMI trained faculty are committed to providing the highest ideals and principles of the Montessori pedagogy.

Requirements include AMI Primary Diploma and Master's Degree. New York State Early Childhood Education Certification is required and willingness to obtain it is expected. Two years of classroom experience preferred.

We offer competitive salaries, benefits and allocate generous resources, focus and dedication to professional development for teachers and staff. REDS also hosts regular professional development workshops and lectures for our teachers and parents.
