Educators and parents with a deep appreciation of Maria Montessori's educational method established The Del Ray Montessori School in the fall of 2011. Four years later, we currently house two primary classrooms, an elementary classroom (ages 6 – 12) and are adding an additional primary program and toddler program this fall. We are located in the heart of Del Ray, a small charming neighborhood in Alexandria, Virginia, just a few miles outside of Washington, D.C.

The Del Ray Montessori School is non-profit school and is run by a Board of Directors comprised of Montessorians, parents and community members. We have a very involved parent body, and have been warmly embraced by the Del Ray community. We offer competitive salaries, health coverage, retirement benefits, and professional development opportunities throughout the school year.

Successful candidates will:

- Desire to work in a community guided by respect for children, families and staff;
- Embody the values of the Montessori philosophy at all times; and
