

Suite 101, 57 East Main Street, Westborough, MA 01581

(508) 366-9288

eBridge Montessori School is Hiring

eBridge Montessori School is a recognized AMI School, located about 40 miles west of Boston. We are expanding and looking for reliable and dedicated AMI certified A to I and primary teachers, starting between April and August 2017. The applicants should have AMI certification; have teaching and classroom management experience, and effective communicate skills.

We offer highly competitive salaries, 401K plan, health insurance, paid time off, tuition discount for staff children, excellent working environment, supportive AMI trained school administrators, staff professional development and growth opportunities.

Visit our web site to get more information about our school: www.eBridgeMontessori.com,

Please contact us if you are interested via email to: jhuang.eBridge@gmail.com

Here is the job description for our lead teachers:

1. The lead teacher is responsible for the welfare, safety and educational achievement of all students in the classroom.
2. The lead teacher is responsible for applying Montessori principles, developing weekly lesson plans, presenting lessons, repairing and making materials with assistant teachers.
3. The lead teacher is responsible for school events, such as parent and student orientations, parent education sessions, classroom meetings, etc.
4. The lead teacher is responsible for preparing, organizing and maintaining the prepared environment based on Montessori principles. This includes keeping the classroom clean and well organized, keeping materials updated based on children's progress and interest, shopping for classroom materials.
5. The lead teacher is responsible for daily supervision, training and evaluation of assistant teachers.
6. The lead teacher is responsible for maintaining accurate progress record using MRX, keeping children's profiles, and writing progress report.
7. The lead teacher is responsible for working with parents, advising the parents of children's progress in all areas. He/she shall make him/herself available when informal parents meetings are needed, either in person or by telephone.
8. The lead teacher is responsible for interviewing new students and meeting prospective parents.
9. The lead teacher is responsible for identifying children with special needs (behavioral, emotional, cognitively etc.), working with parents and other professionals to support those children.

10. The lead teacher is responsible for informing the school administrator of any issues regarding children, parents or the other staff.
11. The lead teacher is responsible for his/her own professional development, such as attending Montessori conferences and/or training; observing other Montessori environments, and working with the school administrators and the AMI consultant to strengthen and maintain the quality of instruction in the classroom.