

AMI Advertisement

Mastro Montessori, AMI accredited since its establishment in 1968, is seeking candidates for an Assistant-to-Infancy directress position for September 2016. Our toddler environment is well established with a supportive administration and community. Candidates must hold an AMI diploma at the A-to-I level. We offer a competitive salary based on prior experience and an employee benefits package.

Interested applicants are welcome to send a resume and introduction letter to Mrs. Sandra Flanagan at director@mastromontessori.org.

As the first Montessori school in Monmouth County, New Jersey and the only school in the area to be certified by the Association Montessori Internationale (AMI), we are committed to maintaining a genuine Montessori experience for Toddler, Primary and Elementary children to become lifelong learners. Led by a nurturing administration and supportive Board of Trustees we provide an authentic Montessori experience for our student and parent community. Please visit our website at www.mastromontessori.org.

The administration is not prepared to sponsor candidates for an employment visa at this time.