

To Whom It May Concern:

Montessori Seeds of Education (Merchantville, New Jersey) is seeking an A.M.I. certified A to I Guide for our quickly expanding school. The candidates for this position will be dependable, professional, have a passion for working with children of this age group, and be strong advocates for our school mission, “to create a mindful, collaborative, and authentic Montessori experience for families”. Our work environment is warm and enthusiastic and the staff is friendly and supportive. Located in charming Merchantville, NJ, we are in walking distance to the center of town and several beautiful parks, and we are 8 miles from Philadelphia, the City of Brotherly Love. Residents can enjoy the best of both worlds: serene suburban neighborhoods and wide open spaces as well as the excitement of a large metropolis, with access to arts, culture, and amazing restaurants. Salaries are competitive and benefits are available (including a relocation package). For more information and requirements, please go to <https://www.montessoriseeds.com/employment-opportunities.html>

The ideal A-to-I Guide will have:

- Bachelor's Degree in Education
- AMI Montessori Certification
- Two to three years of classroom experience