

William and Mary International Academy (WMIA) is an American Montessori Society international member school located in Beijing, China (<http://en.magicbubble.cn/>). It is also the official practical training site for early childhood education majors from Beijing Normal University. A Chinese-English language immersion school, WMIA is located next to the Taoranting Park, approximately 3 miles from Beijing city center. We are looking to hire a teacher to join our preschool (infant to 6 years old).

Qualifications:

College education with at least 6 early childhood education (ECE) units

Native English speaker

Love working with children

Professional, self-motivated, organized, detail oriented

Ability to work both independently and in collaboration with other team members

Neat in appearance and well groomed

Salary and Benefits:

Work hour, 8 hours/day, no more than 40 hours a week.

Visa, WMIA will apply for a work visa on behalf of the teacher.

Salary, commensurate with experience

Health insurance, WMIA will provide full health insurance coverage.

Housing subsidy, a double occupancy apartment is provided free of charge

Travel subsidy, after one year of satisfactory employment, WMIA will provide a free flight ticket from Beijing to U.S should the teacher choose to return to US for a short break.

Vacations and paid time off (PTO), National holidays in China; after one year of employment, five additional PTO days during the summer.

To apply, please send CV and names of three professional references to Yan Yang, Ph.D., Chief Scientific Officer, Leo Universal, Inc. via email yan.yang@leouniversalinc.com