

Forest Hills Montessori School is a small, private school in the historic city of Boston, MA. Our school is expanding and we are accepting applications for toddler and primary lead teachers. The head teacher will be on a team with two Montessori experienced assistant teachers.

Teacher Qualifications: experience working with toddler/preschool aged children, certification in AMS/Montessori credential, a Bachelor's Degree and CPR/First Aid training. Duties will include: Setting up, cleaning and maintaining the learning environment; Supervising children and attending to their physical and emotional safety; Observing children and guiding when needed with appropriate Montessori materials; Participating in all staff meetings and school-wide events; Maintaining positive relationships with teachers, parents and students; and maintaining a record keeping system. Benefits include competitive salary, paid holidays, paid school vacations, paid leave, medical and dental insurance, retirement, and FSA health account.

Please send your resume to foresthillsmontessori@gmail.com
We are looking forward to having a new Montessori directress join our team!