

The Montessori School of Tokyo (MST) is seeking qualified teachers to fill the following positions for the academic year starting August 2016.

- A to I lead teacher to run an established toddler class with a co-teacher.
- 3-6 lead teacher (with 3 or more years experience) to join an established class with a co-teacher.

Applicants should hold a bachelor's degree, be native English speakers (or possess a high level of fluency), have good writing ability, and preferably have an AMI qualification. We are looking for people whose intention is to stay for at least one 3-year cycle (the average stay of our current foreign teachers is over 5 years).

MST is located in the heart of Tokyo and caters to the foreign expatriate community in one of the safest cities in the world. Accepting students from 21 months to adolescents, MST enrolls over 150 students from over 100 families. More than 10 languages are spoken by the 30 plus nationalities represented in our school.

The faculty of MST has been providing authentic Montessori education to the foreign community in Tokyo for over 22 years and strives to maintain best practices according to AMI principles. We provide regular professional development opportunities, regular consultations (AMI and other), a vibrant collaborative and experienced faculty, as well as the perfect location from which to explore SE Asia.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits and provide visa, relocation and housing support. Any interested people should visit the Employment page of our website and send an email with the required information to employ@montessorijapan.com.
