

VanDamme Academy, a small private school in Aliso Viejo, California, is immediately seeking a substitute teacher for our K-1 Montessori environment.

Applicants should have experience in the classroom and should be able to provide good references. Compensation will be commensurate with experience; we are able to offer a competitive salary to a qualified teacher.

VanDamme Academy is a unique and highly-regarded school in our community. For more information, see our web site at www.vandammeacademy.com.

Interested applicants available to start immediately should send a letter of interest and resume to missduryee@vandammeacademy.com.