

Art in the Montessori Classroom

Phyllis Pottish-Lewis

Date: Sunday, March 15, 2015

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Location: Congregation Beth El Auditorium

Cost: $95 (includes lunch)

This comprehensive workshop is designed to give Montessori teachers the tools to enrich their classrooms with art for the ages from 3-12. Participants will explore the foundational principles that underly all artistic expression, and reflect upon how to support children in this aspect of their development. Topics will include:

- Techniques and media
- Sensorial exploration
- Dr. Montessori's guiding principles
- Art appreciation: great masterpieces & unknown works
- The social significance of non-verbal images

Biography

Ms. Pottish-Lewis holds a bachelor's degree in Zoology from UCLA and a master's degree in Montessori Education from Loyola University Maryland, as well as AMI diplomas at the primary and elementary levels. She has spent over 37 years teaching children and 28 years lecturing in AMI training courses. Today, Ms. Pottish-Lewis is a faculty member at the Montessori Institute of Milwaukee. In her spare time, she consults for AMI schools and teachers around the world and gives international seminars.

For more information, visit our website at www.misdami.org or contact us at training@misdami.org or (858) 535-0500 x101.